RE: 2012 Plumbing Registration

Please find enclosed the plumbing registration form for 2012. When filling out the form, be certain to check the proper box for limited or unlimited Plumbing Contractor, and to mail the appropriate fee. There has been no fee increases for plumbing permits this year.

The registration requirements for Limited Plumbing Contractors are the same as Unlimited Plumbing Contractors. Please ensure you include the following 5 items with your registration form and fee:

1. An original copy of your $10,000.00 performance bond. Continuation Bonds will not be accepted. You can give the enclosed form to your insurance company or they can use their own form.
2. Documentation of your business's registration with the Bureau of Workers' Compensation, unless self employed. A photo copy will be fine.
3. Documentation of your business's registration with the Department of Taxation. (i.e. Tax I.D. number or Social Security number).
4. A minimum coverage of $300,000.00 of General Liability Insurance.
5. A copy of your State Plumbing License, if you do not have a State Plumbing license your registration for Unlimited Plumbing Contractor will be denied.

If you need any of our forms or information about our plumbing department they can be downloaded at www.allencountyhealthdepartment.org.

Also remember to forward all backflow test reports to this office as per Allen County Plumbing Regulations, Section 7.03 (D).

Be sure to obtain a permit before any work begins. If calling for an inspection and Keith Geiger or I are in a meeting, ask for our voice mail and we will return your call as soon as possible.

Keith and I are looking forward to working with you in the upcoming year. Thank you and have a great 2012.
